C. Municipal Taxation

79. For the purposes of this Regulation "annual value" means-

(a) in the case of land, the gross annual rent at which it may reasonably be expected to let from year to year:

Definition of "annual value",

Provided that, in the case of land assessed to land-revenue or of which the land-revenue has been wholly or in part exempted or remitted, the Administrator may direct that the annual value shall be deemed to be double the amount of the land-revenue for the time being assessed on the land, whether such assessment is leviable or not, or, when the land-revenue has been wholly or in part exempted or remitted, double the amount which, but for such exemption or remission, would have been leviable;

- (b) in the case of any house or building, the gross annual rent at which such house or building, together with its appurtenances and any furniture that may be let for use or enjoyment therewith, may reasonably be expected to let from year to year subject to the following deductions, namely:—
  - (i) such deduction not exceeding twenty per centum of the gross annual rent as the Municipality may consider a reasonable allowance on account of the furniture let with the house or building:
  - (ii) a deduction of ten per centum of the balance of the gross annual rent after allowing the deduction (if any) under subclause (I) for cost of repairs and for all other expenses necessary to maintain the building in a state to command such gross annual rent;
  - (iii) where land is let with a building, such deduction, not exceeding twenty per centum of the gross annual rent, as the Municipality may consider reasonable on account of the actual expenditure, (if any) annually incurred by the owner on the upkeep of the land in a state to command such gross annual rent;

(c) in the case of any house or building the gross annual rent of which cannot be determined under clause (b) five per centum of the sum obtained by adding the estimated present cost of erecting the building less such amount as the Municipality may deem reasonable to be deducted on account of depreciation (if any) to the estimated market value of the site and any land appertaining to the house or building;

Provided that-

- (i) in the calculation of the annual value of any premises, no account shall be taken of any machinery thereon; and
- (ii) where, in the opinion of the Municipality, the annual value of any building would, by reason of exceptional circumstances, be excessive, if calculated in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section, the Municipality may fix the annual value at such less amount as appears to it equitable.

Explanation I.— For the purposes of clause (b), it is immaterial whether the house or building, and the furniture and the land let for use or enjoyment therewith, are let by the same contractor by different contracts and, if by different contracts, whether such contracts are made simultaneously or at different times.

Explanation II.—The expression "gross annual rent" does not include any tax payable by the owner in respect of which the owner and tenant have agreed that it shall be paid by the tenant.

Taxes which may be imposed.

- 80. (1) Subject to such general or special orders as the Administrator may make, a Municipality may, in the manner provided by this Regulation impose any of the following taxes in the whole or any part of the municipal area, namely:—
  - (a) a tax on buildings or lands or both, payable by the owner, not exceeding.—
    - (i) ten per centum of the annual value; or
    - (ii) fifty paise per square metre of the ground area per annumor
    - (iii) rupees three per running foot of frontage in streets and bazars per annum.
  - (b) a tax on persons practising any profession or art, or carrying on any trade or calling within the municipal area;

Provided that the total amount of such tax payable by any one person, shall not exceed two hundred and fifty rupees per annum.

- (c) a tax, payable by the owner, on all or any class of vehicles all or any class of animals or dogs, when the vehicles, animals or dogs, as the case may be, are kept within the municipal area;
- (d) a tax of the nature of a toll on vehicles and animals used for riding, driving, draught or burden and entering the municipal area;

Provided that-

- (i) no tax shall be levied in respect of any vehicle or animal for which a tax is paid under clause (c):
- (ii) any owner of such vehicle or animal may compound for the tax by paying the corresponding tax under clause (c) if such tax is in force in the municipal area,
- (e) an octroi or a terminal tax on animals or dogs or goods brought into or sent out of the municipal area;

Provided that no tax under this clause shall be imposed with the previous sanction of the Administrator to the proposals for the imposition thereof;

(f) a tax to meet the cost of constructing or maintaining works for the supply of water to the municipal area payable by the occupier or, if there be no occupier, by the owner, on the annual value of such buildings or lands are as so situated that their occupiers can benefit by the works:

Provided that the rate of tax payable by any such occupier or owner as the case may be, shall be determined having regards, among other considerations, to the distance of the buildings or lands from the nearest point at which the water can be delivered from the works to their level:

Provided further that no such tax shall be leviable in respect of buildings or lands which are assessed to the general water-rate or the special water-rate as hereinafter provided;

(g) a general water-rate payable by the inhabitants of the municipal area, or a special water-rate for water supplied by the Municipality under section 102 which may be assessed in any form including that of charges for such supply:

Provided that no such rate shall exceed the limit or limits prescribed by the Administrator from time to time;

(h) a lighting rate not exceeding three per centum of the annual value of holdings:

Provided that such rate shall not be levied in an area where lighting arrangements have not been made;

- (i) rates for general conservancy or house scavenging on such scales, terms and conditions as may be approved by the Administrator from time to time;
  - (j) a tax on advertisement;
- (k) a fee for grant of permission to erect a building other than a hut;
- (1) a fee for parking of buses, lorries taxis and other vehicles where parking facilities or terminus for buses, lorries, taxis and other vehicles are provided by the municipality; and
- (m) any other tax which may be authorised by the Administrator.

- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Regulation or any other law for the time being in force, the property belonging to Government shall be exempt from all taxes mentioned in clauses (a), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (h) of sub-section (1).
- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Regulation, all taxes, rates, fees, or cesses which were being lawfully levied before the commencement of this Regulation shall, until some other provision is made under this Regulation, continue to be levied and collected in the same manner in which they were being levied and collected before such commencement.

Procedure in imposingtaxes.

- 81. (1) Every Municipality shall, before imposing any tax, observe the procedure prescribed in this section.
- (2) The Municipality shall, by a resolution passed at a special meeting frame proposals specifying the following particulars, namely:—
  - (a) the nature of the tax having regard to the provisions of section 80;
  - (b) the persons or class of persons on whom, and the description of property or other taxable things or the circumstances in respect of which, the tax is proposed to be levied;
    - (c) the amount or scale of the tax;
    - (d) the rules regulating the levy of the tax; and
  - (e) any other matter which the Administrator may by general or special order, require to be so specified.
- (3) The Municipality shall publish the proposals in such manner as may be prescribed by the Administrator and shall also publish a notice inviting the objections and suggestions in writing of the persons likely to be affected by such proposals, within a period of not less than one month of the date of such publication.
- (4) After the expiry of the period referred to in sub-section (3), the Municipality shall at a special meeting, take into consideration the objections and suggestions of the aforesaid persons received (if any) and shall then either confirm its resolution referred to in sub-section (2) with or without modification, amendment, addition or alterations, or abandon such resolution.
- (5) When a resolution has been confirmed by the Municipality under sub-section (4), it shall be presented to the Administrator who may—
  - (a) give his approval to the resolution after making any change in its form which appears to him to be necessary; or
    - (b) refuse to give his approval to the resolution; or
  - (c) return the resolution to the Municipality for reconsideration in the light of such suggestions as may be made by him.
- (6) If the Administrator gives his approval to a resolution, he shall notify the resolution together with any rules which he may make under section 203 in respect of the tax and shall also specify a date, not earlier than three months from the date of such notification, from which the tax shall come into force and be levied;

Provided that a tax leviable by the year shall not come into force except on the first day of January, April, July or October in any year; and if it comes into force on any day other than the first day of April, it slall be leviable by the quarter till the first day of April then next ensuing.

- (7) When the Administrator refuses to give his approval to a resolution, it shall be returned to the Municipality.
- (8) When the Administrator returns a resolution to the Municipality, the Municipality may either abandon such resolution or may, after reconsideration, amend alter or vary such resolution; and the resolution so amended, altered or varied shall be presented to the Administrator and be disposed of by him in the manner provided in sub-section (5).
- (9) The procedure prescribed in this section shall apply to any proposal to increase or decrease the amount of, to extend or curtail the scope or effect of any tax.
- (10) A notification under sub-section (6) in respect of a tax shall be conclusive evidence that such tax has been imposed in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation.
- 82. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Regulation, if at any time it appears to the Administrator on a complaint that any tax imposed under this Regulation, is unfair in its incidence, or that the levy thereof or of any part thereof is injurious to the interest of the general public, he may require the Municipality to take within a specified period, measures to remove the objection indicated by him; and, if within that period, the requirement is not complied with to the satisfaction of the Administrator, he may, by notification suspend the levy of such tax, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, until the objection has been removed.

Power of Administrator to suspend taxes.

- 83. (1) Every Municipality shall cause an assessment list of all buildings and lands on which any tax is imposed to be prepared, containing—
  - (a) the name of the street or muhalla in which the property is situated;
  - (b) a description of the property sufficient for the identification thereof:
    - (c) the names of the owner and occupier if known;
  - (d) the annual value and the particulars on which the annual value is based; and
    - (e) the amount of the tax assessed thereon by the Municipality.
- (2) When the assessment list has been completed the Municipality shall give public notice thereof, and of the place where the list of a copy thereof may be inspected; and every person claiming to be either the owner or the occupier of the property included in the list, and any authorised agent of such person, shall be at liberty to inspect the list and to make extracts there from without charge.

Preparation and publication of assessment Diposal of objections.

- 84. (1) The Municipality shall, at the time of the publication of the assessment list, give public notice of a time, not less than one month thereafter, when it will proceed to revise the valuation and assessment and in all cases in which any immovable priperty is for the first time assessed, or the assessment thereof is increased, it shall also give notice thereof to the owner or the occupier of the property.
- (2) Every objection to a valuation or assessment shall be in writing setting forth the grounds on which the valuation or assessment is disputed and shall be left at the office of the Municipality before the time fixed in the note.
- (3) The Municipality, or such sub-committee or officer of the Municipality or of Government as it may by special resolution appoint in this behalf, shall consider every objection duly made and shall, after giving the objector an opportunity of being heard in support thereof either in person or by duly authorised agent, dispose it of and make such consequential amendment (if any) as is necessary in the assessment list.

Authontication of list.

- 85. (1) When the Municipality or the sub-committee or the officer appointed in that behalf under sub-section (3) of section 84, has disposed of the objections and made the necessary amendments in the assessment list in the manner prescribed in that sub-section, the Chairperson or the members of the sub-committee or the Officer as aforesaid, as the case may be, shall authenticate it and at the same time certify that no valid objection has been made to the valuation and assessment contained in the list except in the cases in which amendments have been entered therein; and, subject to such amendments as may thereafter be duly made, the tax so assessed shall be deemed to be the tax for the year—commencing on—the first day of April next ensuing and, in the case of a tax imposed for the first time, for the period between the date on which the tax comes into force and such first day of April.
- (2) The list when so authenticated shall be deposited in the office of the Municipality and shall there be open during office hours to all owners or occupiers of the property included therein or the authorised agents of such persons, and a public notice that it is so open shall forthwith be published.

Further amendments of assessment list and annual revision.

- 86. (1) The Municipality may, after giving notice to any person affected by the amendment, of a time, not less than one month from the date of service, at which the amendment is to be made, at any time amend the list by inserting the name of any person whose name ought to have been or ought to be inserted, or by inserting any property which ought to have been or ought to be inserted, or by altering the assessment on any property which has been erroneously valued or assessed through fraud, accident or mistake, whether on the part of the Municipality or of the assessee, or, where in the case of a tax payable by the occupier, a change in the tenancy has taken place, by altering the name of occupier.
- (2) Any person interested in any such amendment may tender an objection to the Municipality in writing before the time fixed in the notice, and shall be allowed an opportunity of being heard in support of the same in person, or by authorised agent, as he may think fit.

- (3) It shall be in the discretion of the Municipality to prepare a new assessment list every year, or to adopt the valuation and assessment contained in the list for any year, with such alterations as may, in particular cases, be deemed necessary, as the valuation and assessment for the year following, giving to persons affected by such alterations the same notice of the valuation and assessment as if a new assessment as if a new assessment list had been prepared.
- 87. (1) Whenever the title to or over any building or land of anyperson primarily liable for the payment of property taxes on such property is transferred, the transfer shall, within three months of the registration of the deed of transfer if it is registered, or if it is not registered within three months of its execution,, or if no instrument is executed, within three months of the actual transfer, give notice in writing of such transfer to the Municipality.
- (2) Every person primarily liable for the payment of a tax on any immovable property who transfers his title to or over such property without giving notice of such transfer to the Municipality as aforesaid, shall, in addition to any other liability which he incurs through such neglect, continue to be liable for the payment of all such taxes from time to time payable in respect of the said property until it gives such notice, or until the transfer shall have been recorded in the Municipality's books.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall be held to diminish the liability of the transferee for the said taxes or to affect the prior claim of the Municipality for the recovery of the taxes due on any immovable property.
- 88. (1) When any property assessed to a tax under clause (a), (g) or (i) sub-section (1) of section 80 which is payable by the year or by instalments, has remained unoccupied and unproductive of rent throughout the year or the period in respect of which any instalment is payable, the Municipality shall remit the amount of the tax or of the instalment, as the case may be:

Provided that no such remission shall be granted unless notice in writing of the circumstances under which it is claimed has been given to the Municipality within the first month after the expiry of the period in respect of it is so claimed.

- (2) When any such property as aforesaid-
- (a) has not been occupied or productive of rent for any period of not less than ninety consecutive days; or
- (b) consists of separate tenements, one or more of which has or have not been occupied or productive of rent for any such period as aforesaid; or
- (c) is wholly or in greater part demolished or destroyed by fire or otherwise.

the Municipality may remit such portion (if any) of the tax or instalment as it may think can'table, but the portion so remitted shall not it any case falling only under clause (a) exceed one half of the tax or the instalment, as the case may be.

(3) The burden of proving the facts entitling any person to claim relief under this section shall lie upon him.

Notice to be given to Municipality of all transfers of title of persons primarily liable to payment of property tax.

Remission of tax on unoccupied immovable property

- (4) For the purposes of this section, neither the presence of a care-taker not the mere retention in an otherwise unoccupied dwelling house of the furniture habitually used in it shall constitute occupation of the house.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a house shall be deemed to be productive of rent if let to a tenant who has a continuing right of occupation thereof, whether it is actually occupied by such tenant or not.

Recovery of property taxes payable by owner.

- 89. (1) When any sum is due on account of a tax payable under this Regulation in respect of any immovable property by the owner thereof, the Municipality shall cause a bill for the amount stating the property and the period for which the charge is made, to be delivered to the person liable to pay the same.
- (2) If the bill is not paid within ten days from the delivery thereof, the Municipality may cause a notice of demand to be served on the person liable to pay the same and, if he does not, within seven days from the service of the notice, pay the sum due, with any fee leviable for the notice, or show sufficient cause for non-payment, the sum due, with the fee, shall be deemed to be an arrear of tax.
- (3) The amount of every such arrear shall, subject to any claim on behalf of Government, be, a first charge on the property in respect of which it is payable, and shall besides being recoverable in any other manner provided by this Regulation, be recoverable, on application made in this behalf by the Municipality to the Collector, as if the property were an estate assessed to land-revenue and the arrear were an arrear of such revenue due thereon:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall authorise the arrest of a defaulter.

(4) If any tax or sum leviable under this Regulation from the owner is recovered from the Occupier, such occupier shall, in the absence of any contract to the contrary, be entitled to recover the same from the owner and may deduct the same from the rent then or thereafter due by him to the owner.

Power to examine article liable to octroi or terminal tax and to search.
